PRESENTS

THE BLK JUNIOR FOOTBALL FESTIVALS 2018 AT FLAMINGO LAND

CODE OF CONDUCT

The BT Promotions Team welcome you to the Football Festival. We are especially proud of building a family friendly tournament that appeals to all age groups. Adopt this simple code of conduct to promote a good junior football atmosphere.

Respect other Flamingo Land visitors and owners. If returning late be mindful of those with young children and please keep noise to minimum.

Football is restricted to the festival fields and designated playing areas only.

No alcohol is to be consumed at the pitch-side.

Caravan occupancy is maximum of 6 (or 1 extra if under 2).

Leave caravans/Lodges in tidy order as you found them. Please empty your bins and put any rubbish in the outside bins for collection.

No pets are allowing in any of the BT Promotions accommodation.

Please inform your team accommodation monitor if any damage occurs during your stay so that issues can be dealt with. BT Promotions reserve the right to pass any costs of repair directly to the Club Secretary for payment.

BT Promotions and Flamingo Land operate a zero-tolerance policy both on and off the field.

On departure, make sure all your crockery and cutlery is washed and put away.

Enjoy the football either as player or spectator and take advantage of all the facilities on offer at the Flamingo Land Resort.
